

1. Watch chapter 13 from the animated Complete Learning System, Harriet Tubman DVD. (Video clip is also provided for viewing online.)

2. Read Mosiah 8:18

“Thus God has provided a means that man, through faith, might work mighty miracles; therefore he becometh a great benefit to his fellow beings.”

3. Did Harriet Tubman become a great benefit to her fellow beings? (Yes.)

Harriet Tubman dared to do right and despite great hardship and great danger Harriet Tubman courageously lead about 70 slaves to freedom, while her instructions also allowed about 70 more slaves independently find their freedom. She became a great benefit to her fellow beings and her example continues to inspire all who cherish freedom.

4. How can Harriet’s great example help us find joy in our daily lives? (Discuss ideas.)

If you have faith and courage to choose the right and help others every day, even when those around you choose differently, you will be happy and the Lord will bless you and give you strength to do great things.

5. Is it important to stand up for what you know is right? (Yes.)

There were good people who helped Harriet Tubman in her work on the Underground Railroad, but there were many, many, others who didn’t have the faith and courage to help, even though they knew slavery was wrong. “It is not enough for us to know what is right and to believe it is good. We must be willing to stand up and be counted. We must be willing to act in accordance with what we believe under all circumstances. It is of little value for us to believe one way if we behave contrary to that belief in our private actions or in our public performance.” Dean L. Larsen, Ensign, Nov 1978 © 2007 Intellectual Reserve, Inc. All rights reserved.

6. Did Harriet Tubman dare to do right? (Yes.)

“‘I dare you!’ are words boys and girls often hear from friends who want you to prove to them that you are brave or strong or daring....A person shows true bravery and strength only when he has the courage to do right...If you accept a dare to do something that is not right, something that Heavenly Father or your parents would not want you to do, you will be left with a sad and disappointed feeling. When you dare to do right you will have a good feeling about yourself.” Rex D. Pinegar, Friend, Oct 1974 © 2007 Intellectual Reserve, Inc. All rights reserved.

7. What are some of the challenges of today that take courage and faith to dare to do right and how will you face these challenges? (Discuss.)

Glenn L. Pace shared this experience of a young girls faith and courage, during April 2007 General Conference: “Some time ago I had a delightful conversation with an impressive 16-year-old young woman. I discovered she was the only member of the Church in her high school. I asked her, ‘What is the most difficult challenge you face being the only member?’ She was thoughtful and gave a very astute answer: ‘It is believing something is true when everyone else believes it is false, and believing something is wrong when everyone else believes it’s all right.’” © 2007 Intellectual Reserve, Inc. All rights reserved.