ActivityTime

Approximate time: 20 minutes

What you need: A copy of the “Lamb of God” activity (artwork included with this lesson), scissors, tape, cotton balls, ribbon, and scriptures.

Preparation

1. Print out the artwork.
2. Cut along black solid lines.
3. Glue part “A” to part “B”.

Activity:

1. What kind of animals are associated with Easter? (Bunnies, chicks, lambs, etc.)
2. Do you know which of these animals is symbolic with Jesus? (Lamb.)
3. Let’s learn some of the reasons why, as we make an Easter decoration.
4. Have children glue cotton balls around the edge of the white lamb shape on part “A” while you read Ex. 12:21-23. (See image for proper placement.)
What was sacrificed to save the children of Israel? (A lamb.)
5. Glue the ears on part “A” while you read Ex.12:5. What does it mean “without blemish”? (Discuss what “without blemish” means.) Note: Curl ears.
6. Glue the face on part “A”. Was the sacrificial lamb a boy or girl? (Boy.)
7. Glue the eyes on part “A” while you read Ex. 12:46. What did the Lord say not to break on the lamb? (bones.)
8. Glue the nose/mouth on part “A”. What do we know about the sacrificial lamb? (It was the blood of male lambs, without blemish and no broken bones, that saved the children of Israel.)
9. Glue the scripture on part “A”.
10. Glue cotton balls around the edge of the white cloud shape on part “B” while you read Cor. 5:7. Who was sacrificed to save us from sin and death? (Christ.)
10. Glue Christ on part “B” while you read Peter 1:18-19. How is the blood of Christ like the blood of the lamb put on the children of Israel’s doors? (We are “redeemed” from death and sin by the blood of Christ.)
11. Read 1 Ne. 12:6 while you glue the scripture on part “B”.
12. Thread a piece of ribbon through the hole in the top while you read John 19:36.
13. End with words from John P. Pratt, Ensign, Jul 1985, “The Passover feast centered on the paschal lamb, which was a sacrificial lamb, a male without blemish and with no broken bone, even after death. Likewise, Jesus was the ‘Passover,’ the ‘Lamb of God’, a male without blemish and with no broken bone, even after death. He was the Firstborn of God in the pre-mortal existence (D&C 93:21), sanctified in the flesh as were the firstborn of Israel, and slain even as were the firstborn of Egypt (Ex. 12:29).” © 2007 Intellectual Reserve, Inc.
